“ I taught Mindy at Greensboro Elementary School back in 1992 and I was proud to have been her teacher. She was a very sweet and lovely little girl. Time marched on and our paths crossed on Facebook years ago and I got to watch her children growing up. Then, I believe the summer before Covid I met up with Mindy again as she enrolled her daughter in SPCA summer camp that I was instructing. I remember her getting our pic together( Ci and I). We continued to talk through Facebook messenger years after. I am so sorry for this huge loss in your family. All of the comments I have read are about Mindy being kind, helpful, a bright star, and I can't agree more. I will not be able to attend the service, but know my thoughts and prayers are being sent to all of the family. RIP sweet Mindy

“ I met Mindy through Patience and Tim for trivia night about 3 yrs ago. She was the nicest and beautiful person. She loved to help out and very supportive of people. I really appreciated and grateful that she hosted my son's graduation party. I will truly miss her because she was a thoughtful, loving, unselfish and beautiful person. I know you're gone to soon but I will cherish the friendship and family we formed.

“ Mindy and I met and became friends in Kindergarten. We both loved The Babysitters Club series. She always had a kind and gentle spirit that drew people from all walks of life towards her. I knew that no matter what, I always had a friend in Mindy. She ALWAYS gave me grief for not being a Ravens fan and our joke was “we don't talk to each other during football season.” I will miss her beautiful smile and personality. Love and Prayers to Mr. and Mrs. Kibler, Cecelia and Dayton, and the rest of the family. A piece of my heart will always belong to Mindy.

“Mindy was an amazing person in and out, I had the pleasure of growing up with her and her family and then reconnected when our husbands were in the same squadron at Dover. I will never forget going over to their house to hangout and talking football with her. She will truly be missed by so many.

“ I remember making forts in my bedroom and telling scared stories with the flashlight shadow animals . We were 12 when we first became friends . We both took different paths in highschool but always stayed close friends no matter what . She was the most kindhearted , accepting , sweetest people I know , my heart breaks

Christina Kiefler - January 18, 2025 at 10:36 AM

“ I've had a few days to process this devastating news and it still is shocking to me.
I can't think back on Lockerman or North Caroline and NOT think of Mindy. Our gossiping phone calls about boy's names I can't remember now, notes passed in the hallway that now sit in my attic, dancing in the gym to what the kids now call 'oldies', loitering in Dover, and somehow passing Spanish and science class - me by the skin of my teeth and you easily. I still hear you calling 'Jax' down the hall.
I am sad for the people who loved Mindy Carlson (and she was loved deeply) and I'm sad for those who hadn't met her yet - they missed out on a bubbly spirit.
May her memory be a blessing.
