“ What a precious sweet Christian lady Miss Marie was. Always smiling, always a kind word, loved the Lord, her family and her church family. Mr. Bob and Miss Marie have always had a special place in my heart and will always be remembered and missed.

This says best about Marie as I remember her. I've been gone for years, not far but enough that I lost touch with her and others. She was a great friend of the family in and out of church. She just really epitomized being a Christian. She was very easy to know and will be missed by a community that loves her.

“ Marie was a very special person who loved her Lord with her whole heart. A perfect example of a Christian life well lived. She went to work for my dad when I was in elementary school and was a huge part of my life. She was still working there when I graduated and for many years after that. I loved her like a sister and will miss her so much.
