“ My boss informed me State Highway, Denton Shop, was going to hire college students for the summer. In walks two young men Mark Bilbrough and Jade Phillips. Denton Shop was never the same, Mark was a mess and the road workers said youth brought this place to life. Jade was the quite one but I think he was just as much a mess as Mark. Years later, the Hall house phone would ring middle of the night, early morning, this familiar voice, "Miss Hall this Mark from Choptank, sorry to wake you we need Bill people are without electricity." I'd always say "he will put on his Money Makers (lineman boots) and will be to you shortly."

Our prayers and support are sent to Mark's family. He left us too soon. Love to the entire family. The Hall's, Bill, Nancie and Bryan
