“ Mr. Wisener -- I was saddened to hear of your loss of your dear wife. I was priviledged to bring Holy Communion to Martha and you. I will always remember your constant faith, love and devotion to each other. It was truly an inspiration to me. My prayers and deepest sympathy to you and your family,

“ Grandma may have only had 52 grandchildren, but all of our friends were her grandchildren as well. She never turned a child away from her home. My friends were not allowed to call her Mrs. Wisener or Ms. Martha, she insisted on being called grandma. Miss you already.
