

Marvin W Ebling

July 5, 1928 - March 30, 2017

Marvin W. Ebling "Pop", 88, a lifelong resident of Ridgely, MD died on March 30, 2017 with his grandson by his side. He is survived by his wife of 63 years, Margaret B. Ebling; his daughter Carolyn Ebling; his grandson Adam Ebling and his fiancée Heather Robinson; two sisters Elizabeth Faulkner and Mary Fries Haldeman; his friend Ronald Thompson and his wife Barbara; and many nieces and nephews. Born on July 5, 1928, he was one of 10 children to Paul S. and Lillie C Ebling. In addition to his parents he is preceded in death by brothers Roland, Paul, Dudley, Arthur, and Harold Ebling; and his sisters Annice Fike and Mildred Parrott.

After working on the family farm and graduating from Greensboro High school in 1945, Mr. Ebling worked briefly for Noble's Farm Equipment and then entered his own farming partnership with his beloved brother Arthur. During his long working career, he also operated the Arco service station in Ridgely and his own home auto mechanic business, worked with special needs clients at the Benedictine School Habilitation Center and provided care taking services for the Owen's family at Jamaica Point in Trappe and for the Salisbury family in Ridgely. His lifelong passion, however, was driving a school bus for Caroline County Public Schools, which he did for 52 years; and he took pride in owning and operating his own bus for 39 of those years. He considered and cared for all those he bused back and forth to school as his own.

“ What a very nice man.. he used to give me candy when I put the kids on the bus, he spoiled those kids and looked after them. He loved seeing the new babies that came along. He wouldn't take anything off of those 'rowdy' kids. What a dear soul.
