“ Tillie was a gracious, kind, generous and all around great friend, both to me and especially to my mom, Carol Vary, from the moment she & Daddy moved to Ridgely in 1993 from their home in Prince George's County, Md. She was one of a group of wonderful people who welcomed them & me at St.Paul's United Methodist Church in Greensboro. They were in the same bible study group as several others who went to church together and went out to lunch together and enjoyed each others company. I saw Tillie about a year ago and she smiled from ear to ear when I mentioned I was Carol Vary's daughter, and gave me a big hug! She said she remembered all the good times they had together and within their little church group too. SHE HAD SUCH A WAY OF MAKING U FEEL SO GOOD!! Jeannie & your family.....I send my heartfelt sadness in your mom' passing. I really know how much it hurts to have to let your mom "go'.....but, I know, their group is already meeting for bible study in Heaven under Jesus' direct teaching!! WHAT A THRILL THAT MUST BE!!! LUV YA!!!
