“ Uncle Mervin and Aunt Betty Mae were such a blessing to me growing up as the daughter of his oldest brother, Charles. Every Summer we went to Maryland for Richard Reunions. Every Summer I stayed at their house to hang out and play with Debbie, my BCF-Best Cousin Forever. Uncle Mervin always had an amazing garden, and Aunt Betty Mae canned just about everything! Her bread and butter pickles were the best! I went to Maryland a few times as an adult with and without my Dad. Uncle Mervin and Aunt Betty Mae got to meet my husband and daughter. That meant the world to me! They always made me feel right at home and loved.
