

Nat Cole

June 18, 1941 - February 12, 2024

James Elmer Nathaniel Cole fondly known as Nat, of Ridgely, Maryland, left this world on February 12th, at the age of 82.

James retired from General Foods and opened a flea market in Ridgely, he was known as King Cole. He enjoyed winters in Florida, fishing, camping at Chincoteague, and tinkering on almost anything. He had a heart of gold and told the corniest jokes, just to get a laugh. He dedicated his life to God and his family.

He was a great Dad, always had a smile, and will be greatly missed.

James is survived by his wife, Geraldine Cole, of 50 years. He is also survived by his three daughters: Tammie Sutphin and her partner Ron Deasel, Danielle Steward (John), and Stacey Twigg (David). Additionally, he is survived by his eight grandchildren: Cody Cole, Joey List, Shelby Jackson, Lorna Cole, Madison Steward, Donald Twigg, Blake Kinnamon, and Luke Kinnamon.

Furthermore, he is survived by his great-grandchildren: Olivia Cole, Damien and Aurora Burns, and Matilda Kinnamon.

Proceeded in death by his parents Cora and Mark Cole, and siblings, Anna Fortney, Lydia Lockner, Manuel Lane, Walter Lane, and Charles Mark Cole.

Visitation is scheduled for Monday, February 19, 2024, at 1 pm, with a service to follow at 2 pm, both taking place at Fleegle and Helfenbein Funeral Home in Greensboro, MD. The interment will follow at Ridgely Cemetery.
