“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to Frosty's family. I grew to know Frosty over the last four years when I met him at D&B. We became good friends who shared stories about Queenstown and the people who we both knew. He captivated people with the stories he would tell. He was a warm and loving man who loved to talk about his family and how much they meant to him. I hope that their memories of Frosty will help the family in their time of sorrow. I will miss you Frosty!##imported-begin##Brenda Anthony Tryon##imported-end##
