

Paul Donald "Duck" Porter, Sr.

November 25, 1935 - July 17, 2011

Paul Donald "Duck" Porter, Sr., 75, of Goldsboro, MD died on Sunday, July 17, 2011 with his family by his side in the Hospice of Queen Anne's, Centreville after a courageous battle with cancer. He was born on November 25, 1935 in Greensboro to the late Raymond Hursey Porter, Sr. and Dorothy Esther Roe Porter. To begin his working career Duck farmed, he then went on to work for General Foods of Dover. He was a supervisor there retiring after over 30 years of service. He was an avid goose hunter, especially with his hunting buddies Eddie and Jay Lockwood. He also enjoyed gardening, watching his grandsons play baseball and spending time with his many Amish friends. He was a lifetime member of the National Rifle Association and the Denton Masonic Temple Lodge #128. Duck will be sadly missed by his family and friends. Duck is survived by his only son Paul D. Porter, Jr. and daughter-in-law Wanda Sue of Church Hill, 1 granddaughter Julia Porter of Greensboro, 2 grandsons Chase Porter and Chance Porter both of Church Hill, and 1 brother Maurice Porter of Greensboro. In addition to his parents Duck was preceded in death by his brother R. Hursey Porter, Jr.

The family suggests donations be made to the Institute for Legislative Action, NRA, PO Box 5200, Forrester Center, WV 25438-9892, Hospice of Queen Anne's Inc., 255 Comet Dr., Centreville, MD 21617, or Goldsboro Volunteer Fire Company, PO Box 35, Goldsboro, MD 21636.
