

Paul Frederick Lane Jr.

August 27, 1956 - June 6, 2024

Paul F. Lane Jr. of Henderson passed away on June 6, 2024, at home with his wife and son by his side. He was 67 years old. He was born on August 27, 1956, son to the late Paul F. Lane and Virginia Matthews Lane.

At the young age of eight he had been diagnosed with juvenile diabetes and it was a struggle for him his entire life. He grew up in Caroline County where his family once owned a small farm located on Camp Road in Denton. It was during this time he developed his love for horses and farming. He had attended the public school system of Caroline County and had been a member of the FFA.

On July 20, 1974, he married Nora L. Kemp of Earleville, Cecil County Md. During his lifetime, he had the pleasure to had been employed on a few of the largest farms/estates that both the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Virginia had to offer him. Those included Rose Hill Earleville Cecil Co. Upshur Neck Farm Quinby, Accomack Co. Virginia, Gray Fox and Silk/Chester Farms of Centreville Queen Annes Co. Md. He had currently been employed with Central Sod, retiring in 2019 due to complications of his diabetes.

Mr. lane loved woodworking. He could make anything from simple crafts to furniture, but cabinetry was his specialty. He also enjoyed horseback riding, boating, fishing, riding motorcycles and attending modified tractor pulls and rodeos. In his spare time, he loved to attend family events, listen to country music especially Waylon Jennings and watch classic westerns on tv with The Rifleman, Wagon Train and Gunsmoke as his favorites.

In addition to his wife Nora, he is survived by a son Michael Paul Lane of Crumpton, his grandchildren Michael A. Lane of Westover, Alyssa M. Lane of Virginia Beach Virginia, Jaxon R. Lane of Crumpton, mother-in-law Betty A. Smith of Henderson, Sister in Laws Faye Foy of Henderson, Carlotta Maldonado (Jorge) of Townsend De. Patricia Johnson (James) of Bloxom, Virginia, Niece Melissa Bounds of Henderson, who helped in his time of need, his siblings Linda Bennett of Greensboro, Vicky Brooks (Richard) of Queen Ann, Richard Lane (Vicki) of Easton. Many Nieces and Nephews, his friend Robins Wallace of Crumpton, his home call nurse Valerie Williams, and his hospice care team nurse Dawn Warren.

Mr. lane is preceded in death by his parents, father-in-law Carlton Kemp and brother in laws Samuel Foy Sr. and Kennett Bennett.

Tribute Wall

BO

“ In the hearts of those who loved you, you will always be there.” “As you were you will always be, treasured forever in our memory.”
“I keep in my heart the love of the past, for there it was planted forever to last.” “Your presence I miss, your memory I treasure, loving you always, forgetting You never. Love and miss you Freddy. Aunt Bonnie

---

Bonnie - June 07, 2024 at 09:33 PM