“ Will miss her smile. Such a sweet lady. I will always remember her sitting in the church pew with a smile and kind words or at the church bake sale tables.

The town of Price has lost a wonderful lady. She was always in church with her beautiful smile and showed perfection from head to toe. I am so glad that I got to visit her in the nursing home. We shared many memories and made many more. We laughed and talked and I was so glad that we both had a great day. God needed another angel in heaven and I know her loved ones were so glad to welcome her home. She will be surely missed here but we have many wonderful memories and she will always live on in our hearts. Rest in Peace Ms. Pearl Barbara “ Miss Pearl was an historical icon in Price. She, Miss Helen Clough, and before she passed away, my mother-in-law Mary Elizabeth Kimbles were a trio that traveled the roads together and kept the town news flowing! Miss Pearl had the cleanest porch in Price for sure! She will certainly be missed, but I know Roland welcomed her home and she was thrilled to see him. I'm sure she hasn't stopped smiling.....

“ Even though we've only known her for four years, Pearl has become a very special person to us. We enjoyed our many visits and conversations with her. She had an infectious smile. When she smiled, we couldn't help but smile, also. The same goes for her laugh! She had a wonderful sense of humor.

She sincerely loved and cared for people. If she could help someone she wouldn't hesitate. She will be missed by everyone at the Price Bethany and Church Hill churches

Enjoy your new mansion in Heaven, precious child of God.

“ To the Family of Miss Pearl

She was a very special person to me. When my mom passed she filled a void in my life with her hugs and "I Love you" that she would always say to me. Paul and I enjoyed sitting and talking with her. I'm certainly gonna miss driving by her house and not seeing her out sweeping the porch or washing windows. I will always cherish the memories I have of her. May God bless all of you during this time of sorrow.
