“ Rick was my baby brother, and my friend. I will miss everything about you buddy. I know your with Mom and Dad, looking for that perfect fishing spot. There will never be a day that I don't celebrate your life! I am so incredibly proud to have been part of yours and Jeannies wonderful fairy tale life. I remember the story telling (just a little larger each time you told it) of the Dukes of hazzard trash can incident, lol! Sorry about your models getting broke.....I would give anything to hug you and listen to your story one more time! Our world will never be the same without you! It's like learning to breathe again.....I will see you again Buddy, in the meantime, cya later alligator...after a while crocodile .

“ Rick and I were on the Softball Board together for many, many years. He was an awesome guy, and I consider him a friend of mine. Very funny and personable. Playing ball with him, and against him over the years he would always have a positive attitude simply enjoying the game, and time with friends. Jeannie was by his side everytime I saw him. Dedicated wife, and I would say Rick's Best Friend!!!!!!God Bless you Buddy!!You will be missed by many.
