“ Dad, There is so much I want to say but it's hard to get my thoughts down. I want people to know that you were a hard worker, you loved your family and friends, you always had a smile on your face, you rarely had a complaint, and you got along with almost everyone.

You loved playing sports in your younger days, you loved watching me and your grandkids play sports in your older days. You liked going to Ravens and Maryland football games, NASCR in Dover, Yard Sales and Walmart on the weekends. You liked collecting things, like mugs, pocket knives and old guns to name a few.

I will remember the good times we had on weekends playing cards and games with Nanny & Pop Pop, Toby, Bill, Fred and Linda. Going to an amusement park, or heading down to OC to ride the waves.

I am proud to be your son, I watched you beat Cancer twice, although it left you with some hard things to deal with day in and day out. It will be hard to not have you around, as you meant so much to so many, but I take peace knowing that you are not in pain.
