“ Rich was one of the very first individuals I got to be friends with through reenacting the Rev. War in Wayne's Light Inf. I spent many a weekend in the field at events with him and he always added good humor and wit to the evening hours and even at times, on the field during a reenactment. He was a very caring man. I remember him most when he took two young teenagers, Jake and Tommy, under his wing and taught them how to be a Rev. War soldier. I traveled with him to my very first event, Monmouth Court House, back in the Bicentennial years. I have nothing but fond memories of the days with him at events, at Hugh and Diann's house for cartridge rolling parties, unit meetings. I am saddened to hear of his passing and only wish that we had stayed in touch over the years after he and Denise moved the family to the Eastern Shore. We simply fell out of touch. It was through the internet that we were recently reconnected. He told me of his illness but did not allude to the severity of it. He never complained. He was eternally an optimist and told me, he was going to fight it and that, "God isn't done with me yet". Our world is a lot smaller without you Rich. But, you go to a far better place for eternity and life here after. My sympathies go out to you, Denise, and your family at this time of loss and sorrow. God Bless You and may Peace Be With You.

Respectfully,
Dave Clugh
