Ridgely Earl Brown was my cousin, and my first cousin, Lorie Borden's son - my heart goes out to her and everyone that loved him. I never had the honor of meeting or getting to know this very handsome fellow, although I wish I had. Seems like an amazing guy and the tribute is beautiful. So sad that God called home early - he died from pneumonia. He was my mother, Bonnie Barnes, Meadows. great nephew. Please keep his mother, grandparents, and family in your prayers.

May God bless you, I will certainly miss your posts. You had come a long way and I believed in you. You have been through storms and seems that God brought you out of the storm and dark clouds. You were well on your way to a new bright beginning, God knows best. Worry no longer child, stress no longer young man. With all my heart ❤️ I will love you 💕

“ So sorry for your loss. I couldn't believe seeing this while searching for another obituary. I remember playing with Ridgely & Felicia growing up. Dave & Lorie used to bring them over to my dads, Jeff Bornman. Prayers for you all. <3
