“ Karen, Sharon, Dorothy and Lisa: August 6, 2014

Dan just called me to tell Bob and I the very sorry news of your Mom's passing.

As I was listening to him I was transported back in time to several decades ago when

Dan and Rob and Tom were so much younger and so were you girls and we were all living on Arch Street. Your Mom and I were the best of friends and I depended on her for so much. There was so much that she and I felt and thought alike that it was scary sometimes. I know that she only wanted the best for you girls and your Dad. Bob and I still talk about the neighborhood parties and birthday parties (anything for a party!) and just for the sake of getting together parties. One of the ones he and I still talk about is the Halloween party at our house and Tom and Dorothy had the jibber jabbers scared of yourselves. I should not have laughed so hard at you two being so scared. At that time Rose was my soul mate and I grew wiser and stronger in her presence. I never lost my desire to reestablish that friendship as it was then but God gives us different paths and knowledge and we have to follow His will. Rose is in a position to know His will for you and perhaps for me. She has given you girls good solid instructions for you to pass along to your kids and grand kids there seems to be so many of you!

If we don't get to see you Friday or Saturday our hearts and prayers are with you
