“ Dearest Naomi & Family -

I learned too late of your mom's passing to attend her Homegoing service. Words cannot express my sincerest sympathy to you over such a great loss. What a wonderful and splendid lady your mom was ... and a diligent worker also! Her smile, laugh, and pleasant personality will not be soon forgotten. I remember fondly our many "chats" and her expressed appreciation for prayer together. Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal. Our hearts are warmed by our memories of her and the peace of God's comforting presence that I pray will be upon you in the days and months ahead.##imported-begin##Rev. “ Our hearts are broken to hear of Ruthanna's death. Both Marvin and I are so sorry that we are out of state and won't be able to attend the services.

We have only wonderful memories of a wonderful friend who will be missed more than we could ever say.##imported-begin##Kay and Marvin##imported-end##
