“ Momma I am missing you so much and I love you. I told everyone I will be fine when mom passes but I am not. There so much I wish we had talked about and unanswered questions but I know we had different relationship than most moms and daughter I always wanted to be closer but the past always seem to hold us apart but I remember the hell you lived through that's why I made sure you were at peace and comfortable at end. I just needed you to know I will always understand why you had to leave. I hear songs think about you. Merry Christmas in heaven our beautiful angel. Until we meet again

“ Mom mom there isn't a day that goes by that the kids don't talk about your or that I don't want to get int the car to see you. The other day I just wanted to get in the car and the kids and I come talk to you and see your smiling face. But I know that no matter where we are that I can still see you any where we are. It's so amazing how both kids tell me the things they miss about you and that they just wish you were here. I just want to say I love you and we miss you more than anything and this is the hardest time of the year but I know you are up there guiding all of us in the direction we need to be. Until we meet again I love you. ❤️❤️
