“ Wanda and family,

No words of mine will heal your pain in this time of loss and overwhelming grief. Please accept my heartfelt condolences. May you find strength and comfort in the Word of God--the truth that gives real comfort and real hope.

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God" (2 Corinthians 1:3–4)

Please know that I share in your sorrow, and my prayers are with you!

"O LORD, you hear the desire of the afflicted; you will strengthen their heart; you will incline your ear" (Psalm 10:17)

With Love,

“ My name is Cameron Lindsay, and I am the Warden of the Delaware County Prison. I had the good fortune of meeting Sean this Summer and had the opportunity to speak with him briefly on most days, as he did some work for me. I was touched by how kind and thoughtful Sean was, and was disturbed to learn of his untimely death. I wanted to take this space to let those who were close to Sean know that he was invariably good-humored, polite, affable and friendly, even during times of less than ideal circumstances. I'm glad that my life crossed paths with Sean's, and am sad for his family and friends

“ I feel really bad hearing this. Sean was a great friend of my Brother and an awesome soccer player... all around a great guy. Anyway, we dedicated our soccer game yesterday to Sean, with a 4-0 win to Kent County. We'll always have you in our hearts.

“ Sean was extra ordinary in a lot of his own rights. He had a heart of gold and would do anything for anyone no matter what the circumstance. He knew how to love, and forgive with everything he had. Countless times when I would text him and ask what he was doing he would say things like 'well I saw this old lady outside push mowing grass so I pulled over to help her'... I will never forget the way his eyes lit up playing/coaching/ref'ing soccer. He was intelligent beyond most especially when it came to a topic he was actually interested in. And the one thing he loved above all else was his Mom, Dad, sisters, nieces, and nephews. Prayers to everyone at this time, he may be gone but he will most certainly never be forgotten.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Sean as a teammate at Wesley College. Not only was he a great athlete, but he was a great person, friend and mentor, as well. I was truly fortunate to have him as a friend and will miss him. I am so sorry for your loss.
