“ Stan,

Wow, you really don't realize how much you miss someone, until they are not there. I hope your family is starting to heal. We used to have so much fun at the beach and stuff.

Remember that time when my battery smelled bad and I kept asking you if you had gas because the whole car smelled bad, lol! I also remember that night we got the bracelets at the beach and rode the roller coaster at least 10 times in a row, I'm surprised we didn't get sick. I miss you so much, Paige is up there with you and my dad and Grandparents now, say hello for me. Fly high with the angels Stan! 🧡💜

“ I can't help, but think of you every day...it's been over a year, but the pain is still so real... I miss you so much, big brother...I miss your laugh, your bear hugs, and that "evil" twinkle in your eyes... I miss that "bickering" thing we used to do (that drove Mama crazy)... Mostly, I miss that big heart of yours...I know you are finally at peace, but selfishly, I still wish you were here..I love you, Stan and miss you so much and am so grateful that I have somewhere I can talk to you since you didn't have a Facebook page. (Thanks to the Fleegles!)

“ I miss you so much, big brother! There's not a day that goes by when I don't think of you. You will always be in my heart and on my mind and I will never forget everything that we shared. I will always know how much you loved me and were proud of me no matter what anyone else says. You never left me without saying, "I love you, sis!" and I am so grateful that we had the close relationship that we did and I'm so glad that you finally didn't have to sneak around to spend time with me near the end and we could finally see each other whenever we wanted without you having to hear about it later! You will never know how much I valued the time we spent together during your last couple months or how much it meant to me every time you left work early to spend time with me before heading "home". I know that you are finally free and at peace and you so deserve it after the incredibly difficult life you had. We walked through hell together, but I am so grateful that I had you by my side and there to protect me each step of the way. Hopefully, the only thing you have to worry about now is how to manage all the fish you are catching! I will never ever forget you or everything you did for me. You really are the best brother ever and I will love and miss you forever!

“ *Stanely, I wasn't around you that much as we both grew older, but i do remember when we both was younger, when your mom & sister & you lived in Marydel Md, your mom said you both was a handful, I remember one day when i came to visit your mom you& sister was there and you was running thru the house and Aunt Doris(your mom) told you stop running or she would bust your but, well as you & your sister said many times got to catch me first, i laugh then but them were the days, you was a very nice young man and you and your sister I know went threw a hard life as I did, Stanley as we grown up it shows you were a nice young man. you will always be in my heart and you Will NEVER be forgotten, R.I.P we will see one another one day until that day comes you will be in my heart.

“ I miss you so much, big brother! You will always be my hero and I will never forget all that you have done for me, especially when it was just the two of us for so many years. I will miss that smile of yours and that twinkle in your eyes that always made you look like you were up to something. I will miss the way you used to tease me and tell me that I was the brother you always wanted. I will miss your quiet strength and the way you used to protect me. I will miss your incredible sense of humor and your infectious laughter. I will miss how you feigned disdain when I'd call you "James", but tell everyone that only I could call you that. Most of all, I will miss your big bear hugs and how you always said, "Love you, Sis!" over your shoulder! You may be gone, but I'll carry you in my heart forever! I love you, big brudder!

Stan I miss our late night talks. You was always there when I needed someone to talk to. You would come into my second job and talk to me for a few minutes. I wish everyone knew the truth about what we talked about. I may do a blog about it. Rest easy Stan! Love you

“ Stan you are missed so much by so many . We now don't have you with us, but I'm glad we have all them happy, crazy moments with you . That's what makes it so special . I'm so thankful you got to see and hold Khloe, and for me to take a picture . I'm ready to see you one last time to tell you how much I love and miss you, but at the same time I'm not ready to say my goodbyes. It's so hard, all I ask is so you to look over us all . Tanya and mom are the ones that need your looking over the most . We love and miss you Stan! See you soon. Fly high, and go fishing up there. Catch some big ones so you can cook your momma some fish :)
