

Steven Edward Stammer

January 22, 1954 - March 30, 2012

Steven Edward Stammer, 58, of Ridgely, MD died on Friday, March 30, 2012 at his home. Mr. Stammer was born on January 22, 1954 and was a 1972 graduate of Queen Anne's High School. Upon graduating he enlisted in the US Navy, returning home after 3 years. He worked as a machinist at places such as Black & Decker, Dixon Valve of Chestertown and most recently Hydrasearch of Kent Island. He currently was attending Chesapeake College studying to be a Substance Abuse Counselor. He was a member of Fish Locker Ministries of Ridgely. He is survived by his father Edward LeRoy Stammer and wife Wilma of Chestertown, mother Lynn Curlett Dixon and husband Norman of Goldsboro, sons Travis Stammer and Christopher Mooney and wife Christy all of Washington state, siblings J. Wayne Stammer, Sr. of Virginia, Edward Stammer and Robin Weitzel both of Chestertown, and Joseph Stammer of Glen Burnie, step-brothers Thomas Gallion of Ridgely and Robert Gallion of Baltimore and 3 grandsons. He was preceded in death by his sister Kimberly Faith Stammer in 1972.

Tribute Wall

“ Steven Edward Stammer

October 08, 2023 at 03:21 PM

“ Steven Edward Stammer

October 06, 2023 at 10:39 AM

“ I never had the chance to meet you and I truley wish I had. I am the proud mother to two of your grandchildren. Willow and another baby due next spring. I know you got to meet them before I did as they came to me from God himself. I believe you know who they are and thank you for your son. I would not have my babies if not for you. Thank you grandpa Stammer.

Elizabeth Herron - October 10, 2020 at 06:34 PM

“ My Condolence And My Prayers To Travis & Christopher And Tracy

Steve Was A Great Guy And Jesus Loved Him Very Much. I Very Sad At This Time And It Will Never Be The Same With Out Steve And Only 1 Question Will Always Be -- Why He Did This##imported-begin##Kevin Duckworth##imported-end##

March 30, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Steve always worried about others more than himself. Even on my darkest days, he would e-mail me a joke or find some way to put a smile on my face. No father could be more proud of his sons than Steve was. In fact, he focused his research paper on the many sacrifices that soldiers must make, both at home and abroad. When I think of Steve, I think of sacrifice...he gave up so much for those he loved dearly. He will be missed in so many ways. I hope he is finally at peace.##imported-begin##Linda Earls##imported-end##

March 30, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ I,Il love ya always brother! Stacey and I and the family will miss you deeply. You were a part of our family and more than just a neighbor and friend. We'll meet again someday and until that day I remain your brother and friend
Gregg###imported-begin##Gregg Poulos###imported-end##

March 30, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Stammer Family,
Seems like not so long ago we were all friends, classmates and rode the same bus together. Carefree times. Keep those memories and for sure a smile will result from those thoughts. Wayne so sorry for your loss. May God hold you in the palm of his hand during this sad time.###imported-begin##Jayne Welch###imported-end##

March 30, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ I thank God for allowing me to meet such a man as Mr. Stammer. I attended classes at Chesapeake College with him. He was excited about the opportunity to get educated to become someone to reach out to those suffering from the disease of addiction. He will be greatly missed. May God grant his family the comfort, love and peace they need at this time. Elder Carol Johnson###imported-begin##Carol Johnson###imported-end##

March 30, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ i could not have asked for a better father, a better mentor, or a better friend. i know in myh life we have had our dissagreements but in the end those arguements inspired me to start thinking clearly. you helped me out of many situations without even realizing it. you will always remain in my heart and my memories. until the day we meet again you will be remembered. by all those who loved you. especially your son and daughter(in law). take it easy old man. i know when i get up there you'll be watching hot rod tv or choppers.###imported-begin##travis stammer###imported-end##

March 30, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Lynne & Family,
So sorry to hear of your loss. Just know that others are thinking of you at this trying time. You are in my thoughts and prayers.###imported-begin##Charlene Klabe###imported-end##

March 30, 2012 at 12:00 AM