“ It is that time of year again. I have been said and didn't really give it much thought as to why. It hit me today when I wrote the date why I have been so sad. It has been almost 3 years and it still feels like we just lost you today. You are forever in my heart and thoughts. I love and miss you.

“ I have known Susan since High School. She was great friends with my sister and that is how we met. I loved Susan like a sister and she will be missed. We lost a very special soul here on earth, but Heaven called home an Angel. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.
