“ Tracey, I will miss you more than you'll ever know. To think of all the fun we had as kids makes me miss you even more. I think of all the water balloon fights and squirting each other with the water hose. Haha. You was like a sister to me. Your love, smile and friendship will be greatly missed. Your legacy will live on with your wonder children and family. We've all cried a million tears over loosing you and we will cry a million more until we see you in Heaven.##imported-begin##Mark Crawford##imported-end##

“ Dear Joe & Children, We are so very sad to learn about the passing of your wife. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. When you put our building up a couple of years ago, I remember how hard your Boys worked and often tell others what a wonderful Father you were. Let your strenght come from those wonderful children and we are thinking of you.

“ To the family of Tracey. I was a friend of Tracey's some 30 years ago. When visiting from Oklahoma, we went to movies and shared some fun times in Chestertown. Tracey will always be remembered. My condolences to the family and to Mrs. Ruth Ann.

“ Tracey, my thoughts and prayers go out to your family. I think of our childhood and growing up in Piedmont. As we grow older we go our separate ways; I never had the privilege to meet your husband or children. However, I know that your kindness and beautiful smile have been passed on to your children. God Bless you Joe and Ruth Ann.##imported-begin##Dwight Schmidt##imported-end##

“ Tracey, I will miss that beautiful smile of yours here on this earth. I know it has been a number of years since we've spoken, but memories of you flood my mind now. Even though I knew you at school, I really got the opportunity to become your friend when we worked together at L.N. Close Co. We had tons of laughs, smiles, and good times there. Though I never had the chance to meet your family, I know you were a giving, caring, and tremendously loving mother and wife. Losing you, Tracey, will leave a hole in everyone's heart.##imported-begin##Courtney Piatt##imported-end##
