

William David Walls

December 6, 1957 - December 21, 2024

William David Walls of Greensboro passed away on December 21, 2024, at the Bayhealth Medical Center in Dover DE.

William was born on December 6, 1957, to William Norman Walls and Carolee Donna Walls in Havre, Montana. During his early years, he lived and worked in Las Vegas, where he enjoyed bull riding and boxing. Later, William became a Mason and contributed to the construction of the new bridge in Greensboro, worked on Cal Ripken's home, and participated in various military establishments. He found great joy in oil painting and deep-sea fishing, but above all, he cherished spending time with his family.

He is preceded in death by his father, William N. Walls of Greensboro.

William is survived by his mother, Carolee (Waldrip) Walls from Greensboro, one daughter, Mellissa Klassen (Trenton) of Minnesota, and two sons, Caleb Walls from Colorado and William Walls. He also leaves behind two sisters, Eileen Walls of Greensboro, MD and Roberta Cook of Goldsboro, MD. His legacy continues with seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

A small graveside service will be held at a later date.

*Home with Jesus--Free from all pain, tears, and sorrow.
So many fond memories of our days in singles ministry at GBC. I Cor.
2:9--"It is written, What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man imagined, what glories God has prepared for those who love Him."*
