April 26, 1940 – May 2, 2026

Passed away peacefully at his son's home in Greensboro, MD surrounded by the people who truly loved him and his kitty fur baby, Annie Mae.

Born April 26, 1940, to the late Jennie "Mickie" Ashley and Oakley Chaffin Washburn. He served his country in the United States Navy during the Cuban Missile Crisis. He retired from Maryland corrections as a Correction Officer after working at Jessup Prison in Jessup, MD and ECI in Princess Anne, MD. In his younger years, Bill was a volunteer at the Grasonville Volunteer Fire Department. He would be seen running down Main St in shorts and barefoot to respond to calls.

He took pride in his Native American Cherokee Heritage. Bill and his late wife Gloria "Jean" (White Dove) Washburn would attend Pow-Wow's and other Native American functions.

Bill enjoyed racing drag bikes at the US 13 Dragway in Delmar, DE. You could find him most weekends there.

He owned Eracer's Corner in Delmar MD and Elba AL. He could be seen cruising around Elba in his blue GEO Tracker, top down and blaring his gospel music.

Bill loved sitting on his front porch watching the cars go by, smoking his Pall Mall cigarettes and listening to his country gospel music.

On Sunday's, you could find him sitting in his "throne room" watching NASCAR races. When they would get exciting, he would call his son, and they would talk during the rest of the race. Some of his favorite drivers included Davey Allison, Bill Elliott, Alan Kulwicki, Dale Earnhardt Sr and Mark Martin. Bill is survived by his son, Tracy Washburn Sr (Jennifer), Grandsons Tracy "Trey" Washburn Jr (Madalyn & 3 Great-grandchildren, Bentley Detroit, Bella Louise & Kylee Ann); Aaron Coleman (Tricia & 2 Great-grandchildren). “ Where do I start met Bill and his wife Jean working at Eastern correctional Institute. He was always carrying a Bible. he was friends with my husband. We moved to Alabama and they came to visit after that. They sort of never left. They loved it down here. He was a good friend. He would've give you the shirt off his back and jeans if you needed it I don't believe Bill Washburn ever met a stranger he is loved and sadly missed forever in our heart. I hope you're having a good time in heaven, with all my people rest in peace, pop pop
