

William T. Wing Jr.

August 21, 1953 - February 11, 2013

William T. Wings, Jr., "Dickie", departed this life on Monday, Feb. 11, 2013 at Easton Memorial Hospital following a brief illness. He was born on Aug. 21 1953 in Wilmington, DE to the late Alussia B Hoxter Johnson and the late William T. Wing Sr. He was 59 years old. "Dickie" was educated in the Caroline County school system. He graduated from North Caroline High School in 1971. William served in the United States Air Force from 1971 to 1973. He then joined the Army Guard. William worked at various general labor jobs. His last place of employment was Allen Family Foods, Cordova, MD. Dickie enjoyed listening to music, political discussions, running, walking, visiting with friends and family. He was an reader, which meant many trips to the library, usually by foot. During his life Dickie had set two goals that very important to him. One was reading the Holy Bible from "cover to cover" and the other was to hike across America. He was able to accomplish both, walking from Goldsboro to California and back again during his junior and senior years. In addition to his mother and father he is preceded in death by his step-father Reginald A. Johnson, by whom he was raised, and his sister Regina L. Johnson. Dickie is survived by one brother Lumont Johnson(Angela), nephews Tyre D. Johnson and Montre L. , Liberto, nieces Brianna J. Johnson, Tiana M. Turner and Jakia Turner. He also leaves to mourn his passing four aunts, cousins and friends.
