“ I met Lee several years back at a gym in Denton, MD, called "Fit for Life". We worked on bench press together, and Lee was a lot better at it than I was, even though I was about 25 years younger than her. Lee made me laugh quite often, with her subtle wit. She was soft-spoken, but I learned to listen carefully, so I wouldn't miss the interesting things she shared with me. She would tell me stories about Carl and their little dachshund, and I would tell her stories about my husband and children. One time, she gave me an almond bush that still blooms light pink blossoms every year. She also gave me a small water color painting of flowers that she did; quite lovely, and I still have it on my wall. She would also tell me stories about the students in her painting class. Lee Gaertner lifted my spirits, and I am truly glad that I had the opportunity to know her. God bless you, Lee. You were a wonderful person!
